RANGEL, ART APPLICATION FOR REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY ADVISORY BOARD (WARD 5) – 12/2/2024	RESUME

ART RANGEL BIO

Art Rangel now retired, was the Principal of Rangel Municipal Consulting, a municipal consulting firm specializing in Redevelopment, Economic Development and City Planning from 2000 until 2016. He continues to be a Certified City Planner.

Mr. Rangel purchased his first condo in the Montage (Redevelopment Project Area 1) in 2011 and has been following city issues ever since. He became a committee member of Nevada Economic Development Conference and served from 2016 through 2018.

Mr. Rangel had over forty years of municipal government experience with over eleven years in senior management in diversified, full service and contract cities. After working for six California cities, he ended his successful Municipal Government career as a City Manager. He worked for two cities as a Department Head responsible for: Economic Development, Business Retention, Redevelopment, Ombudsman, Housing, Planning, Building and Safety, Public Works, Engineering, Transit, Parks, and Capital Improvements. His public sector experience has been augmented with prior private sector banking experience and a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. His Masters Program of Urban Planning was strengthened when he became a Certified City Planner in 1982.

Mr. Rangel was City Manager for the Town of Loomis from March 1998 to April 2000. His accomplishments included preparation of the Town's Comprehensive General Plan, which included the Town's first Economic Development Element and Fiscal Impact Analysis. He was responsible for the adoption of the Town's first Subdivision Ordinance, acquisition of properties for the Town's first corporation yard, acquisition of property for road extensions, and negotiations with adjoining jurisdictions for roadway improvements. He also developed and implemented various new Town policies.

Before moving to Northern California, Mr. Rangel was Director of Community/Economic Development, and Deputy Executive Director for the City of Downey for eight years. In 1994 he started the "Business Retention Assistance In Downey" program, responding to a severe Southern California recession. Other accomplishments include preparation of a Comprehensive General Plan. He enhanced City Hall's image by improving customer service with a downsized staff. He helped save a 350 employee manufacturing company from relocating out of state. Through his redevelopment efforts, he helped revitalize the downtown area by attracting a multiplex theater and construction of a related municipal parking structure. He was also able to recapture lost auto dealers. He acquired property for development of a senior citizens housing development. Mr. Rangel was instrumental in development of a regional economic organization and programs. He brought neighboring cities together on economic development, transit, air quality, planning, and other issues.

In 1989 Mr. Rangel was promoted to Director of Community Services for the City of Baldwin Park after having served as that city's City Planner for five years. As Director, he was responsible for all Community Development and Public Works activities.

Mr. Rangel served as the first Chairman of Gateway Cities Council of Governments Economic Development Directors. He has served on various panels at the League of California Cities Annual Conference, California Redevelopment Association conferences and the Planning Commissioners Institute.
