Education or Training Relevant to the board or commission to which you are applying: Currently, I am a high school student. While I do not think my experiences are universal, I believe my time has given me some insight into the promises and challenges of Reno's secondary schools.

Explain briefly why you would like to be appointed to this board or commission. Please attach any additional information you wish:

Recently, I read Robert Caro's book The Power Broker, a biography of Robert Moses that describes his domination of New York municipal government. He used his political power to expel 250,000 people from their homes and shape Long Island to his vision. I think Moses's story shows the power and influence of municipal governance. City boards and councils are often ignored, even though they have as much influence on the average person's life as any legislature or federal agency. It is disappointing that so many Americans—and young people in particular—have no knowledge of what their local government can do for them or how to participate in it. I hope that I, through participation in the Reno Youth City Council, can help to represent my underrepresented generation.

I certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the information I provided in the application is true. If the information provided is false or incomplete, it shall be sufficient cause for disqualification or removal. If appointed, I agree to attend a board or commission orientation session, if applicable, within six months of my appointment. I understand that failure to comply with this requirement will result in automatic removal from the board or commission.
