Hello, my name is Anshuman and I am a rising Sophomore studying at the Davidson Academy. I am excited to apply for the Reno Youth Council because I am passionate about making a positive impact in our city and I have a unique perspective on some of the issues present in the city, especially among the youth. Serving on the Reno Youth Council will also ensure that I collaborate with other like-minded people and learn from experienced leaders, allowing me to play an active role in the leadership of this city. My ideas will contribute significantly to the Council's efforts to create a better environment for not only young people, but for all the people in Reno.

Furthermore, I hope to utilize my knowledge of speech and debate to have important conversations with the rest of the council to develop projects which are relevant and useful for the community as a whole. Through having these discussions with others on the council, the creation and facilitation of these programs will be not only easier, but also much more representative of people's true thoughts and wishes for bettering the city.
