On 2/10/25 I decided to eat lunch at the new restaurant, Twin Peaks. As I approached the front door a tall man with a beard was standing around outside near the entrance. He commented to me and my female companion that we might be coming to apply to work here because the outfits of the wait staff were so great. We were stunned and confused. He opened the door for us. As we entered we were greeted by a hostess who was barely covered by a scant "outfit" which revealed her entire buttocks and mostly her entire naked body covering only her breasts and pubic area. We were shocked at this and were wondering how a family with children would tolerate such a place to eat. Aren't there any laws regarding decency in eateries? Has our community fallen to the depths of such crass and disgusting levels that women are further demoralized in restaurants open to the general public? Twin Peaks needs to be shut down or have an "adults only" limitation put on it. Somebody should do something to shield and protect the public from this disgusting place!!!!
