i look askance at the "raising rec fees to help pay for the Moana Springs pool" for the project looks to have been mismanaged.

2 years ago, the price for Moana was $18 million, ergo the $9 million donation from the Pennington Foundation. The city's portion was to be funded by the public sales of assorted properties. Later, the project price went up to $25 million, not a huge amount given the size of the facility but nevertheless, concerning.

Now, the project cost is $52 million - to be paid for by bonds & raising fees for public access. why didn't the property sales cover the costs? did the properties even get sold? how did the project cost nearly triple?

The city has egg on their faces over this one.

Parking Ever since this project started I have construction workers parking in front of my house and all up and down my street making it very inconvenient for us. Why cant they park on the jobsite? It is only going to get worse once the drywallers and electricians start. I have complained many times to Reno Direct and the General Contractor to no avail. I would appreciate it if you could resolve this problem.

Hello, my name is Dina Rutherford. And I am a resident of Reno Nevada. I grew up here and I recently moved back. I would say 5 years or so ago and in the last three years. I have been noticing an immense now have a wrapped in the neighborhood in the garage in the shed using the fruit at my neighbor's house at my place of business online threads. I got on next door about a Bernie I found and there was a whole huge conversation about wraps moving out into this higher neighborhoods a friend of mine does look at the top of Hunter Lake and it has wraps for the first time ever and she grew up house and is now it's late 50 year old woman. So my personal theory is that the old building downtown that are being gutted are not being treated before they're being gutted and the Rats that have been living down underneath there and surviving off of the casinos for awhile about spreading out and they reproduce like crazy as we all know and they carry patience as we all know and I really like to see I don't know if it may be too late at this point because so much has been ripped apart. And I'm only just now coming up with that idea. Maybe some other people have had that idea. But I think there should be definitely a rule of law people coming into Reno wanting to transform it, but they make sure to take care of Of those type of problems that could be preventative buildings just got treated before anything got started it. I think we would not be having this problem unless they come from somewhere else, which I can't think of where unless somebody is, you know dropping them off. Anyway big rat problem in Reno. My phone number is 775-229-1829. I don't know if this is all I need to do I would come down and speak. I guess I could find out about that. But please could we start moving in the right direction of preventative disease spreading so that you know, we don't have another pain now link or a little city Penn Demico, whatever. Okay. I think that's it. I don't know why I feel like this is really empty ended but here we go. There's my $0.02 Let's keep Reno Road.

Yeah, I like to know. My name is Frank. I live here on the 7th and Keystone. I'd like to know if you guys can address a problem here on 7th and Vine. It's about homeless people living under the bridge and RVs and Trucks covered with junk. This is a nice area and we have the part just right up the street and the cops has been here numerous times. And as soon as the cops believe they leave in an hour or so, they come back and they stay there another two weeks. So, you know, you guys need to do something because this is really becoming an ongoing problem and I address this because I used to live here. back in 89 and when I came back and and 98 my goodness, what a change. You know rina's not like it used to be so, you know, the city council has to do something. I'm a taxpayer and I'm paying to have them look after this and if it's not being done like it should And so I'd like to know if you guys can address this problem. I left you guys my number I'd be happy to talk to you. And if not, I'll go to the city council and and let him know what I think. So. Anyhow, thank you very much. My number is 770-556-5429. Thank you very much. God bless and have a good day.

On Friday, this is Graham court side is it's it is can enforce bands on homeless people sleeping outdoor even in the left this West Coast. 6th Street decision maybe versus San Francisco based appeal or if found outdoor seating bands of Mom. I'm out to cruel and unusual punishment. Perhaps you learning Council people will look this thing will start enforcing the laws against these phones a lazy people the drug addict Syracuse to work. You have these big place that you send all this money for them to have somewhere to go so you don't for some into it if they don't want to sleep in there and then I should have comfy place. Then they can't sleep on the street. They just leave the city kind of like cockroaches if you have a dirty house you have cockroaches. According lazy people is not compassionate. It's a terrible thing to make people depended on your city government in federal government. Again, the Supreme Court made a ruling. Maybe you guys will look it up. Charlotte Police flu and let them do their job and enforce the laws instead of just enforcing laws on taxpayers people who actually have something to lose.

Hi, Friday, the 28th Supreme Court. rules that almost people to be arrested in fine for sleeping on public spaces. overturning the San Francisco ruin before the coddled default It doesn't benefit anyone if you continue to support laziness, May will be give you a with because lays in is is just as addictive is not for you know, the difference is if they were an error when they probably know they smell so bad. You need to let our PD tell the Chiefs are enforcing the laws on everybody instead of just the decency to who work to have something to lose and you know, they're not going to argue with you period that's all I hope you put a little bit effort into finding this Supreme Court ruling and cleaning up the filthy street that you have promoted here in Reno. Instead of it being called Reno the biggest homeless camp in the nation. I'd like to get back to me the biggest little city. Thanks.

What doesn't the Reno City council do anything about how bad it has gotten downtown with all the homeless and the people that are high on drugs that make our City a dump. Why does the City council care more about midtown is that because of the Mayor by which she is doing a horrible job not taking care of issues and installing a bike lane around downtown which no body from the City would ever use because of how bad downtown Reno has gotten. When I moved to Reno over 24 years ago Reno was the better out of the two cities Reno and Sparks but downtown Sparks is a lot better then downtown Reno everybody on the Reno City council should be very ashamed for how you all have let downtown Reno get year after year.

Dear Reno City Council, my name is Rhiannon Box and I am the board president for Good Luck Macbeth Theatre company, an awesome arts nonprofit located in the heart of Midtown. We were fortunate enough to receive an events grant from the Reno Arts and Culture Commission. With those funds, we were able to put on our annual 10-10 festival, a two-day celebration of new and emerging local playwrights. 10 playwrights, many of whom were high school students, each wrote a 10 minute play that was then staged and produced. Many of the productions were captained by new directors. Our mission is to give local creatives an opportunity to hone their playwriting and directing skills. We also were able to have playwright, Michelle Tyrene Johnson, zoom in and give a workshop on how to build characters. This free event sold out and had over 27 artists involved in its creation. Thank you to the Reno City Council for their continued support of the Arts and the Reno Arts and Culture commission for their generous support. The Arts are an important driver in the success of our incredible town and we are fortunate to receive this funding.

Best,

Rhiannon Box

I'm contacting you about UNR purchasing the area near downtown. The company we rent with Liberty capital has given many people who are disabled, senior and poor into a situation during the hottest months of the summer. We along with dozens and dozens of others were given two months to get out with no compensation whatsoever. They offered a $500 break if we could be out by the 31st of July and now we're dealing with our streets being closed for road construction. Many of these people will end up homeless and I know there's something that can be done. Thanks for your time and thanks for the job you've done as mayor.

Hello,

I am writing regarding the proposed Chapter 9 entitled "Adult Oriented Businesses."

We operate two adult-oriented retail businesses in Reno ("Suzies"), with our original location successfully operating there, incident-free for over 25 years. I have extensive experience operating adult businesses nationally and have an in-depth understanding of adult business-related ordinances and their legalities and histories.

In short, the practical reality of the proposed Chapter 9 is that it would likely force the closure of these businesses - costing Reno 40+ high-paying jobs, thousands in sales taxes, and lawful access for the 10,000 monthly consenting adults who currently visit Suzies to purchase constitutionally-protected adult entertainment merchandise.

To my knowledge, there has never been any incident of "criminality" or "adverse secondary effects" nearby these two retail establishments, nor has there been any adverse effect on the "stability of property values." To the contrary, from 1994 to 2022, the former Suzies property on Kietzke Avenue actually appreciated nearly 2,000% in value.

It is hard to understand why the purchase of merchandise such as adult novelties for off-premises consumption could possibly have "adverse secondary effects," but Chapter 9 seeks to make the purchase of such merchandise illegal at a retail store. The government has no place in regulating what goes on in the privacy of one's home, and by making it harder to purchase merchandise one might use in his home, that's exactly what the government is doing.

It is equally hard to understand why the City of Reno has a vested interest in requiring an employee selling an adult novelty (such as a sex toy) to obtain an expensive work card from the government. Cashiers at convenience stores regularly sell products much more harmful than a vibrator (such as alcohol or tobacco products that can, in fact, be deadly), but the City of Reno trusts them to sell those more dangerous products free of such oversight?

Perhaps most difficult to understand is why a retail establishment selling adult novelties needs a full-time licensed uniformed security guard. This requirement alone will render most adult stores unprofitable as these guards cost $50+ per hour. While many gas stations in Reno regularly suffer assaults, robberies, and drug use on their properties, the City of Reno has not required such establishments to hire full-time licensed uniformed security guards.

The common theme of these silly requirements (among many others in the proposed Chapter 9) is that they are solely designed to put adult retail stores out of business by making it prohibitively expensive and difficult to legally operate. The irony, of course, is that these same toys are now available at Wal-Mart, Target, and even Walgreens.

At its root, these ordinances are often drafted by religious zealots whose misogyny and homophobia permeate through the endless list of onerous regulations. The template from which Chapter 9 was drafted was likely started with a draft written by such an individual. I am confident that you are intelligent enough to see through that curtain of deceit and recognize what the proposed Chapter 9 really is - an affront to the First Amendment and a backhanded attempt to shutter these businesses.

The US Supreme Court has held that adult products are protected by the First Amendment, which was not written to protect speech that everybody likes; it was written to protect speech that sometimes is disliked. I do not hide the fact that adult entertainment is sometimes disliked (even when privately consumed solely by consenting adults), but in your obligation to the constitution, it is your duty to protect such speech equally and without discrimination. Censorship and government interference in the private lives of consenting adults is commonplace in Iran and North Korea, not the United States. One cannot fairly say they value freedom, yet want to meddle in the private lives of grown adults, just as one cannot fairly say they are pro-business and anti-bureaucracy, yet want to strangle these small businesses with red tape.

These businesses have operated quietly and safely for many decades in Reno with no issues. Please omit Chapter 9 from your code updates, if not for the sake of the First Amendment, for the sake of the consenting adults who simply aren't bothering anybody else.

Should the opportunity present itself, I would enjoy the opportunity to respectfully plead for the jobs of the 40+ employees who work at these businesses who will be forced into unemployment should Chapter 9 become a reality.

Respectfully Yours,
Ryan Carlson

Hello Madam Mayor and planning Commission,

I am reaching out in regards to ask if the city has considered constructing a botanical garden dome as other cities have done? I believe with the recent survey that was sent out to Reno residents that this would be in that same field of interest and would drive a large amount of eco-tourism to our city along with needed green infrastructure and potentially plants that many have not been able to see before! Potentially even releasing numerous species of pollinators within the garden as well, a space for native plants and species, and perhaps a pond too?

I realize it's an ambitious idea, but it's an investment in our growing community and our environment as well, that could provide passive income to our city as well as upkeep for this project and future projects.

Thank you for your time,

Kindly

Stevie Applewhite

Next: Jamal Kashimiri. Ponerosa...he also has Battle Born Properties LLC (fitting isnt it?). He owns 730 E Fourth ST.

Now, you have a significant problem right there. 2 businesses have had multiple fires, break in, and the area is trash. That entire area is accessible from the train tracks, and the empty lots back there...however there is one building thats vacant. Its a shell. Both doors are open. There is no fence. The property has no security. It has become a hording spot for the homeless. An extreme focal point is that empty building being used by transients etc.

Okay...we all know the deal here. Its these very few "Reno seniority" people with property, that they are failing to control. Which has caused a safety and security issue to the public.

I understand some of these people seem intimidating bc of their demeanor. Do not let these businesses along Fourth St abandon their property to this extent without sending them an "ALL CAPS" demand. And make them do something yesterday.

This area has sirens and alarms going off, urine and trash everywhere, police calls left and right....and its all bc of one building thats being used like a haven for activity thats wide open.

Have fun with this one!

My name is Bill racky. My phone number is 702. 8108082 and I'm visiting Reno from Boulder City, Nevada. I'm here to see my daughter. I'm staying at the Motel 6 over here on off of 9th and Wells and last night. I was walking, uh my dog down Ninth Street and uh, as I approached the stoplight, uh east of Wells I went to turn around and their homeless people live in there. There's an RV parked on the side of the road that's been there for 3 all the days that I've been here. I felt so uncomfortable going down that stoplight and turning a walking around the around it and uh coming back on the North side that I just stopped beforehand and crossed the street before all this homeless stuff. Um, I used to go to college here in the 70s and uh, REO isn't anything like it used to be and you've now got the Supreme Court of Grants Pass, Oregon and uh, you should be cleaning. Streets up and your sidewalks up and get the people out of the park. I'm up at Whitaker Park walking my dog at the dog park in the dog park and there's homeless people laying all over the place up there clean your town up clean it up. Visitors don't like looking at this. Thank you.

Um, yes, we'll be getting from a city of Del Rio Texas. Um, we came by to visit Reno for the first time in our lives. And um, to be honest with you. We're just not impressed with the city as far as Um so many homeless out of control and key areas key spots where people come to see and experience. Um, we couldn't take a decent picture because they're literally in our pictures. So I mean, I understand they have rights, but y'all could do a better job of maybe patrolling keeping them out of you know, key area key spots. Um people asking how was the a visit? I'm not I don't know what to say aside from it being beautiful. Um, I I wouldn't I don't I wouldn't recommend it. So I just wanted to to leave that message because um, our experience was not very pleasant. Thank you. Have a good 1. I hope you get to do something about it. I guess more patrolling. Um, we saw you doing some people and uh Park on First Street and see you literally like drinking, you know with bottles of liquor and between the word for says believe We're supposed to.

Hello, my name is Donna Clark. I am reporting problems at Paradise Park that continue everyday which caused a lot of fear and refusing by the neighbors to use this wonderful park today. There are about 10 cars parked on Paradise Drive who are living in their vehicles. Some of those vehicles have no license plates on them several of them have been there every day for the last 10 days and during the day they spread their belongings out on the grass there in the shade. It's obviously a very hot day. But every day is another day that our community doesn't use this great park because homeless people have decided they should live there which is against the city ordinances request. I know it's clean the safe needs to come out and does come out and visit with them and try to get them at the services but many of them refused. To accept those Services. I have talking to all the neighbors there, and we will be organizing and we will start attending meetings and making public comment as much as we can to bring attention to this issue. Thank you. And please help us clean up this park and make it make it welcoming and say for our neighbors. Thank you.
