I support extending the current priorities of the strategic plan through FY26 budget process and look forward to participation in the update. I am particularly happy to see Strategy E6 and E8. E6 encourages planning for resilience as we meet disasters such as severe drought, wildfire and flooding that may be super-charged by a warmer climate. This is vital. E8 calls for the City to do everything it can feasibly do to reduce GHG emissions, which I believe is what is required of us as good citizens and good people. Thanks to the Council for including these and for having a Climate Action Plan. I hope these strategies will become even higher priority items through the updating process.

A Reno sustainability plan needs to include sustainability measures for data centers and other large energy and resource users vs the current little-controlled proliferation of these resource hogs!
