You have received this feedback from Kathy Falkenhagen < falkenhagen100@hotmail.com > for the following page:

Hello Hillary, I just read the article about the satanic prayer at the county commissioners meeting. In a world full of so much evil, this is absolutely disgusting. I am a new resident to the Sparks area and this is so disappointing to read in the daily paper 'Hail Satan' is being recited in chambers, absolutely outrageous! I read the rationale and free speech, but it is still so inappropriate. I hope all the commissioners are replaced next election. Kathy Falkenhagen 970-903-1215

Agenda Item

B.25

Do you wish to speak in person at the meeting?

No, written comment only (please submit your comments in the field below)

Your Comment (if you are speaking, it is not necessary to complete this field)

I'm writing to make to urge you to say no to B.25. Although we support Jewish people, we do not agree with an organization that supports an apartheid state in the process of a genocide and ethnic cleansing. Our tax dollars should not be utilized for these purposes and instead should be used to improve our own improvements here in the United States.

Which City of Reno Ward do you reside?

Sparks

I'm calling about opening the meeting with a prayer to Satan whether it's a prayer or whatever you want to call it. I think is Ty. We stopped all of the religious crap. If this person could come and stand there and say a prayer to Satan that we need to remove that part of the function of the county all together. There should be no prayers from anybody and I can't believe that that man was love to do. It. It it it's Barbara Gaston. I have to tell you that's not very good.
