THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION AND PARTICIPATION

Good morning, Mayor Schieve and Council Members . My name is Escenthio Marigny Jr. I reside in ward 5. I'm currently the Coordinator of Public Humanities in the Gender, Race, and Identity Department at UNR. I'm here today to briefly express my interest the Civil Service Commission. Unfortunately, I cannot stay during the duration of the meeting due to work obligations.

In brief, I would like to be appointed to the Civil Service Commission to contribute to ongoing efforts of ensuring that the city has an equitable and wide-reaching recruiting and selection process. I believe my experiences as a community organizer and scholar position me to contribute a unique and informed perspective on equity and inclusion to the commission. Indeed, these experiences have led me to recognize the importance of having institutions that seek qualified candidates that reflect the population and strive for diversity. It is my hope that my experiences both in the classroom and community can build on the great work of the current members of the Civil Service Commission

I've have previously reached out to members of the council with my resume and have had the pleasure of meeting Council members Delgado, Reese, and Taylor in person or by phone. Mayor Schieve, I hope you will consider me for the position. I appreciate your time.

Thank you.

Hi, my name is Francesca Martinez. I am a constituent of Ward 3 &. I just wanted to vocal eyes. My support for the libran for Ward, 3 city council member and this NCO. I called him Co or is the name, I believe for Civil Service Commission at these two individuals. I feel like I've been so involved with the community and really taking action that we don't really see very often as like community members and see them out doing things to better our community andBig really change. They made a big In the Garden City, and I think we need people like that in city council here, in Reno specially since how big Reno getting thank you.
