

City Clerk - Ward 3 Q&A Questions

October 18, 2022

Q1:

If selected as the Ward 3 Representative, what do you believe are the most pressing issues for Ward 3 and how might you consider addressing these issues?

Q2:

Ward 3 is diverse in population and background, past representation welcomed diversity, oftentimes meeting the community where they were. What is your experience with diversity, equity, and inclusion? Can you highlight how you will engage with all residents as a City Council Member.

Q3:

What do you envision your time commitment would be per week for this job and how would you make the adjustment with your current job in order for constituents to interact with you?

Q4:

Have you been specifically active in Ward 3 activities such as our Neighborhood Advisory Board and what have you learned about our needs from those activities?

Q5:

What do you believe to be the most important issues facing the City of Reno and how would you go about addressing them?

City Clerk - Ward 3 Q&A Questions

October 19, 2022

Q1:

In yesterday's session each of you mentioned affordable housing as a major issue facing Ward 3 residents. At times, affordable housing and urban development have been in conflict with each other as related to City Council priorities.

What can the City Council do to balance "beautification" and structural development of neighborhoods without displacement of those communities?

Q2:

Building trustful relationships takes time, effort and authenticity. What would your approach be to intentionally connect with communities that are non-traditionally involved. How do you plan to inform those who are less fluent in political processes?

Q3:

Ward 3 has the largest floodplain in the City of Reno. What ideas or policy changes would you propose to protect existing flood storage in South Reno?

Q4:

For some, decisions made by a governing body sometimes create an environment of disillusionment with its constituents. What would you do to repair the broken trust between the community and its representatives?

Q5:

The City of Reno continues to encourage residents to live, work and play in our community. What are your thoughts on Downtown Reno and its relevance to daily life, thriving business development, humanitarian services, and space activation? If you could create a 20 year plan for Downtown Reno what would that entail?
