I have run a private practice that focused on providing affordable help, mostly regarding Family Law. I have taught C.L.E. seminars in the areas of foreclosure defense, defending DUIs and criminal law. My career has involved investigating many complex questions with constantly looming deadlines. My case notes were submitted along with all the police reports and other evidence in the case to three independent experts, whose evaluations eventually led to all the charges being dismissed. My duties also included representing clients in divorce, bankruptcy and criminal defense.
