I have a doctorate in literacy education and have long championed the cause of literacy for all. Two years ago, I initiated a Race Unity discussion group in response to the Black Lives Matter movement. I also write a weekly column for the RGJ to foster the similarities amongst all religions.

Explain briefly why you would like to be appointed to this board or commission.

I would like to be part of the solution to the challenges facing Reno. Affordable housing is vital to our community. Equity, diversity and inclusion of the marginalized are my mission in life. There are increasingly calls for help amongst the houseless population. I would strive to make the Commission proactive rather than symbolic, with clear action plans and timelines. I also hope we could begin to partner with the UNR advocacy groups already in existence, such as the Queer and LGBT Advocacy Board.
