About Me

I am a fifth-year student at UNR, double-majoring in Spanish Literature and Social Work, with a minor in Translation. My expected graduation date is Spring 2023. I have plans to obtain my Master of Social Work. I am passionate about people, social justice, equity, sustainability, environmental justice, community, and access of resources to all. I believe that the arts are important healing instruments. When I am not in school or at work, I spend my free time dancing, painting, reading, and writing. I am bilingual in English and Spanish. I want to use my acquired language skills to access more people who are not native English speakers. I want to be apart of the community that I adore so much. I want more macro-level experience as a social work student. I am an advocate for the voiceless.

Schooling
