Interests & Experiences

Education or training relevant to the board or commission to which you are applying:

I do not have any formal education in Reno's history. I am not sure if there are any courses available for this type of study. However, I have been studying Reno (formerly Lake's Crossing and Fuller's Crossing before that) and Nevada history for more than 25 years on my own. I have amassed a personal library of books and other literature related to Reno's and Nevada's history. I am currently studying the book 'An Illustrated History of the University of Nevada.' Written by Sam Doten (U of N class of 1898) it was to help commemorate the 50th anniversary of the University. In short, though I have no formal training, I am personally well versed in Reno's history.

Explain briefly why you would like to be appointed to this board or commission.

I feel there is a sincere lack of historic preservation in The Biggest Little City. Reno has an interesting as well as rich history and there is very little (if any) interest in preserving it. I am not one who desires to stop progress. However I do feel that a balance can be reached that preserves history while allowing Reno to continue into the 21st century. Further, the Reno City Council members, the Mayor and other public officials are much too busy to busy with the present day and future concerns of our city to be studying the historical aspects of our city. I however am not so busy and would welcome the opportunity to advise the people I have listed above about historical matters, so these considerations can be taken into account when choices are made and/or votes are cast.
