Interests & Experiences

Education or training relevant to the board or commission to which you are applying:

My education and training have been focused on geology. Geology is the study of piecing together the history of an area in order to understand how it came to be in the present day. I like to think of myself as a historian of the Earth and so it's of no surprise that I have a similar love for human and community history. I have always made it a priority to dig deep into the history of the people and places that surround me so that I can better understand and serve my community. I would love the opportunity to learn how I can support the preservation of our historical resources in a practical and effective way with the HRC.

Explain briefly why you would like to be appointed to this board or commission.

I believe my enthusiasm and passion for the historical resources of Reno and the surrounding areas would make me a valuable asset to the HRC. In my spare time, I like to create walking tours of historic houses and buildings of Reno or go to Virginia City and be transported to the boom and bust era of mining in the highlands. I may not have been born here or lived here for a long time, but Reno has become my true home and I want to help preserve the rich history that made it what it is today. I would love the opportunity to serve my community by being a board member on the Historical Resources Commission.

EXPLORATION GEOLOGIST

Data-Driven Scientist | Creative Problem Solver | Effective Communicator

Exploration geologist accomplished in analyzing and integrating structural, geophysical, and geochemical data to create and evaluate data-supported play concepts and prospects. Eager to learn, collaborate, and apply experience to geothermal systems. Areas of Expertise:

- Structural Geology
- Hydrocarbon Systems Analysis
- Well Logging/Correlation and Interpretation
- Exploration Applications/Computer Software
- Geographic Information Systems (GIS)
- Data-supported 3D Geologic Models
- Prospect Evaluation and Risk Assessment
- Geophysical Modeling and Seismic Interp.
- Field Mapping and Data Collection
- Geochemical Modeling and Analyses

EXPERIENCE

ORMAT TECHNOLOGIES, INC., Reno, NV

Aug 2021 – Present

Project Geologist

- Participate in field work to acquire meaningful exploration data that aides to progress geothermal resource evaluation and characterization.
- Interpret geological, geophysical, and geochemical data to evaluate potential for geothermal resources and communicate risks and uncertainties to management and shareholders.
- Develop and support operations at operating fields through drilling campaigns and analyses.

EXXONMOBIL, Houston, TX

Aug 2018 – Feb 2021

Exploration Geologist

Aug 2019 – Feb 2021

- Interpreted geological and geophysical data to create play concepts and evaluate prospects and communicated risks and uncertainties, empowering management to make informed decisions on million-dollar investments.
- Created geophysical interpretation strategy for newly acquired seismic data in large (10K km²) frontier basin with limited well calibration based on geophysical and rock property models, accelerating identification and evaluation of multiple drilling targets.

Exploration Geoscience Intern

Aug 2018 – Dec 2018

- Analyzed and integrated historical geological and geophysical data, identifying opportunity to save 10s of millions of dollars on offshore acreage lacking economic hydrocarbon potential.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY, State College, PA

Aug 2016 – Aug 2018

Graduate Research Assistant

Aug 2016 – Aug 2018

- Designed and executed experimental methods and coded geochemical models in MATLAB for data analysis, resulting in first author publication contributing to understanding how rate of geochemical processes can be used to predict life-threatening earthquakes in subduction zones.
- Communicated highly technical information to both technical and non-technical audiences at dozens of domestic and international conferences, expanding knowledge base of scientific community.

Teaching AssistantMay 2016 – July 2018

- Instructed 2 6-week field courses teaching undergraduate students fundamentals of geology through field-based projects in stratigraphy, structural geology, geomorphology, and igneous and metamorphic petrology.
- Designed and presented lectures and guided hands-on exercises educating 60-plus undergraduate students on how to examine and interpret data related to structural geology.

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION, Kochi, Japan

May 2017 – Aug 2017

International Research Fellow

- Planned and executed research field season with Japanese scientists and performed geochemical analyses as continuation of Penn State graduate research, sharing knowledge, and building strong interpersonal relationships with collaborators.
- Provided subject matter expertise, delivering 5 original lectures on structural and tectonic geology to graduate and undergraduate student at Kochi University.

EOG RESOURCES, San Antonio, TX

May 2015 – Aug 2015

Exploration Geoscience Intern

- Mapped depositional features and over 10K faults on 3D seismic data in the Olmos Formation, identifying opportunities for drilling and causes of faulting in EOG acreage.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN, Austin, TX

Aug 2013 – May 2015

Undergraduate Research Assistant

- Collected xenoliths from Big Pine Volcanic Field, CA and performed electron microprobe and point-counting analyses, resulting in publication and presentations at national conferences, sharing knowledge of how magma storage can be used to monitor hazardous volcanic activity.

SMITHSONIAN NATIONAL MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

May 2013 – Aug 2013

Washington, DC

Research Intern

- Simulated pyroclastic density currents (PDCs) to discern how temperature and density impacted depositional behavior, contributing to understanding of how PDCs' path of destruction can affect vulnerable communities. Presented at multiple national conferences.

EDUCATION

- Post Graduate Program in Data Science and Business Analytics, The University of Texas, Austin, TX
- Master of Science (MS), Geosciences, The Pennsylvania State University, State College, PA, 2018
- Bachelor of Science (BS), Geosciences, The University of Texas, Austin, TX, 2015, Honors
