I am an 8th generation Northern Nevadan, a scrub brush child of the valleys, rivers and lakes. I care for and respect this land as my tribal ancestors that dwelled here before me have. I create my art as a reflection of what's in my blood. I see the beauty of this delicate and weathered landscape and it's people. I feel that bringing colorful, controversial and thought provoking art has been adding a new level of texture to our home. I love what Reno has done to bring art to the city. I would like to be a part of the group that makes that happen. To be able to see a huge new mural or statue and know that in some small way I was able to help make that happen would make me feel so fantastic! I see it as how my people left their marks along the petroglyph trails, I could have a chance to be part of something that leaves behind art and visual stories for generations behind me to enjoy and I love that concept. I am very much obliged for your consideration of me as a member. I feel that I could contribute a great deal and have a very helpful and strong voice, and hopefully represent my Tribe in a meaningful way by brining art to our land.

Good morning,

See below message. Sara Paschall applied for the RACC but intended to apply for the PAC. Does she need to reapply or can you make that change?

Thanks,
Megan

Subject: Hi! Quick change to my application.
To: <bernerm@reno.gov>

Hi Megan!

My name is Sara Paschall, I am a local Indigenous artist and small business owner and I am applying to be a part of the big Reno arts scene.

It was brought to my attention by Mark Salinas that I put the wrong committee on my application. (I mean, I am down to be a part of anything anyone wants to let me be a part of for sure) I entered in the RACC as my area of interest but should have entered the PAC. He asked me to contact you and clarify that.

Sorry for the mess up and thank you for your time and help on this matter!
