

Chief Equity Officer (CEO)

Presented by Nnedi Stephens and Edward Coleman

August 4, 2022

A dark leather chair is positioned behind a wooden podium. On the front of the podium is a gold-colored nameplate with the letters 'CEO' in a bold, black, serif font. The scene is dimly lit, with the nameplate being the primary light source. A large, white, curved line separates the image from the text on the right.

A grayscale photograph of a modern office interior. The space features a high ceiling with a complex grid of white structural beams and several large, industrial-style pendant lights. Large windows on the right side offer a view of a city skyline. In the lower right, three people are visible: one sitting on a ledge, one standing, and another sitting. The overall atmosphere is professional and contemporary. The text 'CEO Overview' is centered in the middle of the image in a white, sans-serif font.

Operationalization of Inequality

Equity Operationalized

Equity in government is the fair, just and equitable management of all institutions serving the public directly or by contract; the fair, just and equitable distribution of public services and implementation of public policy; and the commitment to promote fairness, justice, and equity in the formation of public policy.

A man in a grey suit and yellow tie is shown from the chest up, with his hands slightly raised. Overlaid on the image is a network of white lines connecting various circular icons. The icons include: a Wi-Fi symbol, a gear, a padlock, a factory, an oil pumpjack, a lightbulb, a ship, a brain, a bar chart, a wrench, and a cloud with a padlock. The background is a dark teal color.
